A LIVE COMMUNICATION PROGRAM

stop being overlooked.

You've finished the courses. You've watched the TED talks. You still freeze in meetings. PRO Communicator is the live practice that finally changes that.

FIND YOUR VOICE

Speak with confidence

BE UNDERSTOOD

Influence with clarity

BE FOLLOWED

Lead with presence

A 3-month live coaching program — from hesitation to authority.

Live on MS Teams

Mon–Fri

11 AM & 8 PM IST

Certified coach

Max 15 per cohort

WHAT A SESSION ACTUALLY LOOKS LIKE

you're not watching.
you're in the room.

No recordings, no autoplay, no hiding on mute. Every PRO Communicator session is a live room of no more than fifteen people — cameras on, voices used, a coach guiding each turn.

WHY COMMUNICATION DECIDES YOUR CAREER

Talent gets noticed. Communication gets hired.

Interviews

Confidence, clarity, professional impression — the difference between shortlisted and rejected.

Group Discussions

Lead the room without dominating. Listen first. Structure the chaos. Bridge conflict.

Presentations

Sell your work, your ideas, and yourself — in 90 seconds or 9 minutes, on demand.

Workplace Growth

People who explain clearly get promoted.
People who don't, get stuck at L1 forever.

Business Growth

If you build it but can't pitch it, no one buys it.
Founders sell first, code second.

☐ Communication is not a talent. It's a skill — and skills are built.

THE COST OF STAYING SILENT

your work is excellent but no one knows it

Communication is the skill that decides promotions, closes deals and builds careers — yet nobody teaches it at work. Here's what that quietly costs you, every single day.

You stay silent in meetings

You have the answer. But by the time you've figured out how to say it, someone else already has.

Feedback lands badly — both ways

Giving it feels harsh. Getting it feels personal. Neither goes well, and nothing changes.

You lose negotiations early

Salary, scope or credit — you fold. Not because you're wrong, but because you can't hold the room.

Presentations make you shrink

You rehearse for hours and still lose them in the first minute. Great slides, mismatched delivery.

Hard conversations stay avoided

With a manager, a peer, a client. The right moment never comes — and resentment quietly builds.

Others get promoted first

They didn't outwork you. They out-communicated you. And the difference is completely learnable.

Communication is not your weakness. Silence is becoming expensive.

LIVE · PRACTICE-FIRST · COACHED

this isn't another english class. it's a live practice lab.

Coached sessions five days a week on MS Teams, 11 AM & 8 PM IST — real speaking practice with a certified trainer, not recorded videos. You'll speak 60+ times in three months, with a coach correcting you in the moment.

- ✓ A coach corrects you live. Your voice, structure and presence, fixed in real time — not a playlist you watch alone.
- ✓ Practice-first, not theory. 60+ real speaking reps — because watching a video is not a rep.
- ✓ Small cohorts, max 15. Everyone speaks, every session. Nobody hides at the back.
- ✓ Real work scenarios. Meetings, appraisals, interviews and negotiations — not generic speeches.
- ✓ A structured 8-module path. From your first icebreaker to leading the room with authority.

YEARS OF COACHING

A COHORT, NOT A COURSE

three ways you learn — every single session.

Every session runs live on Microsoft Teams, in a cohort of no more than 15 — so you're never watching a screen alone, you're in a room. And in that room, learning reaches you from three directions at once.

1 From yourself

The instant you're asked to speak, your brain connects on the spot — reaching for the right word, building it into a sentence, a paragraph, a whole speech, in real time. You don't memorise lines, you generate them. Every rep wires that instinct deeper, until thinking clearly on your feet becomes automatic.

2 From your cohort

The tacit learning no book can give you — absorbing other people's views, perspectives and phrasing, and the feedback they offer. A room of peers is a mirror and a library at once: you watch how others handle the same moment, and take what works.

3 From your coach

The direct layer: your facilitator explains the meaning, models the craft, and evaluates you in the moment — naming what worked, what didn't, and the one change that lifts you. Expert correction is what turns raw practice into real skill.

BEYOND COMMUNICATION • 50+ SOFT SKILLS IN THE SAME ROOM

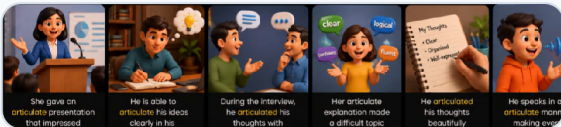

Negotiation · facilitation · storytelling · conflict resolution · time management · scheduling · interview craft · meeting leadership · team building · feedback — and 40 more, woven into your practice alongside communication and leadership.

A RITUAL, NOT A TO-DO LIST

every day warms up your voice.

Practice doesn't wait for the live session. Each morning, a few small prompts get your mind reaching for words — so by the time you speak, you're already warm. Every prompt comes with a real, usable example.

WORD OF THE DAY

articulate

(v.) to express an idea clearly and with impact

One precise word each morning — learned in a sentence you can use the same afternoon.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

"let me build on that..."

add your voice without cutting anyone off

A ready-made phrase to enter a discussion smoothly — and be heard doing it.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

"think on your feet"

to respond well with no preparation

An everyday idiom, unpacked — so you understand the room and sound natural in it.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"the quietest voice can still be the one the room remembers."

a small reset before you speak

A line to sit with each morning — a reminder of how you want to show up.

60

QUICK TOPICS SESSION • LIVE

A surprise topic. No prep. You speak.

You're handed a topic and you respond right then, with the coach reacting in the moment. It's the fastest way to train the instinct of thinking clearly on your feet.

Most communication courses hand you a playlist and disappear. Kalaivani sits in the room with you. Every PRO Communicator session is live, and she coaches each speaker individually — correcting your voice, your structure and your presence in the moment. That is the only way confidence actually changes: through reps, watched and guided by a human who has done it for seventeen years.

- ✓ Leads every session herself — you learn from the coach, not a recording.
- ✓ Live coaching, five days a week — Mon–Fri · 11 AM & 8 PM IST.
- ✓ Warm, direct and deeply practical — feedback you can use the very next day at work.

FROM HESITATION TO AUTHORITY

8 modules. one complete transformation.

Each module is a live, coached session — you don't just learn the idea, you practise it on the spot and get real feedback.

Ice Breaker

Step onto the floor with zero fear. Your first prepared speech in a supportive room.

Speech Organisation

Structure any message so people follow you from the first word to the last.

Purpose & Clarity

Every word earns its place — say it so the room knows exactly what you mean.

Language & Body Language

Align what you say with how you say it — tone, posture and gesture in sync.

Visual Aids & Research

Support your message, don't overshadow it — slides and data that back your point.

Persuasion & Inspiration

Move people to act — land your idea in pitches, negotiations and tough rooms.

Leadership & Evaluation

Run meetings, evaluate peers and get coached on how you lead in real time.

Showcase & Reflection

Deliver your signature speech to a live audience — then see how far you've come.
